OCT. 2, 1962

DEAR JAMES,

Since I feel like I know you personally with all of your recent publicity, I thought I would address this short note as a Dear James letter. (After all, I am 8 years older).

I just want you to know that the majority of the Virginia whites are behind your drive for better relations and a better education. The majority of the Norfolk schools are integrated, and people here are losing the golden rule.

It's regretful that Mississippians are still living in the Dark ages.

Here's a toast to your success with my wife joining me ^{and} to your graduation at Ole Miss, and just remember there are more people behind you than otherwise.

Sincerely,
Stan Garrison
